They have been a classed in last preliminaries for some time, and superto to have wagons, fixtures, apparatus and all complete by about the first of May. They have seemed the close the following celebrated persons as part of their superior corps: The Helland Family, Farker of St. Louis, Belletti of Philadelphia, and Williams of New York. A party of Indiana are also to be connected with the exhibitances. They may be connected with the establishment. Fifty men will be employed in the consern, and some 2s way one will be required for transportation. The horses and equipments are, we understand, to be of the first class.

A STRIKE.—The Journeymen Carpenters it is known have made a strike for higher wage.—They claim 14 shillings a day, and this not unreasonable demand has been complied with.—Measars. Pointer and Milwain, who have their shop on Quincy and Jackson streats, remuss in hop on Quincy and Jackson streets, request us to state that they have been paying from 12 to i shillings all winter, and that now they will ay fifteen shillings to good workmen. We are lad to see this. There is no better indication of prosperity than when mechanics (including printers) get good wages. They work hard and
